Your Insurance Department

Young man with five years' insurance experience, three years of which were devoted to handling the insurance department in a real estate office, and having spent the past two years in the San Francisco and California departments of a large fire insurance company where every phase of fire insurance was handled, now desires to become connected with an office where past experience and knowledge can be used to advantage.

There are, by actual count, twenty-nine distinct kinds of insurance, only a few of which are sought after by the average broker, thus giving a splendid field for the few who do.

A high-class touring car can be used for business purposes if desired.

An interview is solicited. Being at present employed, the liberty is taken of using Box No. 962, "The Recorder," 77 Sutter street.
